

Privacy Policy for 'clareboilerservices.ie'

This statement relates to the privacy practices of Michael Todd in connection with this website.

I am not responsible for the content or privacy practices of other websites. Any external links to other websites are clearly identifiable as such. Some technical terms used in this statement are explained at the end of this page.

General statement

I fully respect your right to privacy, and will not collect or publish any personal information about you through this website without your clear permission. Any personal information which you volunteer to me will be treated with the highest standards of security and confidentiality, strictly in accordance with the Data Protection Acts, 1988 - 2003.

Collection and use of personal information

I do not collect any personal data about you on this website, apart from information which you volunteer (for example by e-mailing me or by using my online contact form). Any information which you provide in this way is not made available to any third parties, and is used by me only, in line with the purpose for which you provided it.

Collection and use of technical information

My website uses a temporary "session" cookie which enables a visitor's web browser to remember that you have viewed my cookie law banner. No other information is stored in this cookie.

Visitors can use this website with no loss of functionality if cookies are disabled from the web browser. Technical details in connection with visits to this website are logged by my analytics provider for my statistical purposes. No information is collected that could be used by me to personally identify website visitors.

The technical details logged are confined to the following items:

- the IP address of the visitor's web server
- the top-level domain name used (for example .ie, .com, .org, .net)
- the previous website address from which the visitor reached us, including any search terms used
- analytics which shows the traffic of visitors around this web site (for example pages accessed and documents downloaded)
- the type of web browser, operating system, and screen resolution used by the website visitor.

I will make no attempt to identify individual visitors, or to associate the technical details listed above with any individual. It is my policy to never disclose such technical information in respect of individual website visitors to any third party (apart from Roxr Software Ltd which records such data on my behalf and which is bound by confidentiality provisions in this regard), unless obliged to disclose such information by law.

The technical information will only be used only by me, and only for statistical and other administrative purposes. You should note that technical details, which I cannot associate with any identifiable individual, do not constitute "personal data" for the purposes of the Data Protections Acts, 1988 – 2003.

Complaints about data processed via the website

If you are concerned about how personal data is processed via this website, please do not hesitate to bring such concerns to my attention by contacting me using the appropriate details on my website or using the contact form.

Third Party Websites

This privacy policy does not address, and I am not responsible for, the privacy, information or other practices of any third parties, including any third party operating any website to which this website contains a link. The inclusion of a link on the website does not imply endorsement of the linked website by me.

Additionally, I may provide you with access to third-party functionality that permits you to post content to your social media account(s). Please note that any information that you provide through use of this functionality is governed by the applicable third party's privacy policy, and not by this privacy policy, and I do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.

Glossary of technical terms used

Web browser: The piece of software you use to read web pages. Examples are Google Chrome, Microsoft Internet Explorer, Firefox, Safari and Opera.

IP address: The identifying details for your computer, or your internet company's computer, expressed in "internet protocol" code (for example 192.168.72.34). Every computer connected to the web has a unique IP address, although the address may not be the same every time a connection is made.

Cookies: Small pieces of information, stored in simple text files, placed on your computer by a web site. Cookies can be read by the web site on your subsequent visits. The information stored in a cookie may relate to your browsing habits on the web page, or a unique identification number so that the web site can "remember" you on your return visit. Generally speaking, cookies do not contain personal information from which you can be identified, unless you have furnished such information to the web site.
